Upon selection for a specific case, consultants will enter into a Service Agreement with Precision Experts, outlining the project's scope, deliverables, deadlines, and payment terms. Consultants agree to provide unbiased, professional, and accurate assessments in alignment with legal and professional standards.

4. Confidentiality and Data Protection

Consultants agree to uphold client confidentiality. Any information shared through engagements or during the application process remains confidential and should not be disclosed without prior written consent. Compliance with all applicable privacy regulations, including HIPAA in the U.S. and PIPEDA in Canada, is mandatory for all consultants.

5. Intellectual Property and Rights to Reports

All reports and assessments generated during engagements are the property of Precision Experts and/or the client. Consultants agree not to reproduce, distribute, or use such materials beyond the scope of the assigned work, unless authorized in writing.

6. Liability and Indemnification

Consultants are responsible for the accuracy and completeness of their assessments and agree to indemnify Precision Experts against any claims arising from their independent work. Precision Experts does not assume liability for the conclusions or opinions provided by consultants.

Applicants must disclose any potential conflicts of interest during the application process and upon assignment. Precision Experts reserves the right to reassign cases if a conflict arises that may impact the objectivity or credibility of the expert opinion.

8. Application Evaluation and Updates

Precision Experts may retain applicants' details on file for consideration for future projects. We reserve the right to update these Terms and Conditions periodically; continued inclusion on the roster will constitute acceptance of any updated terms.
